Delivering moms & babies from the impact of addiction

Wrapped in Hope is a coalition of providers in Lake County and the Flathead Reservation who came together to provide compassionate, confidential prenatal care and support for families in our community.

We provide care and coordination of services from pregnancy through the first year of the baby's life with a main goal:

To keep families together in recovery.

It takes a community.

Wrapped in Hope brings a full suite of services together for each mom in need. We have developed a single standard of care to improve both short- and long-term health outcomes for addicted mothers and their babies. All of our partners take the needs of the whole family into account and are dedicated to our mission of helping moms have and keep healthy babies.

Some of our services include:

- A dedicated patient care navigation system who helps moms find and access all available social service, health, and counseling resources.
- Premium care from kind and consistent medical providers who are compassionate and confidential and who respect mother's rights and needs.
- Therapeutic support from licensed addiction counselors dedicated to the particular needs of pregnant women and their families.
- Prenatal care including ultrasounds and other screening tests.
- Referrals to home visiting support and other social services.
