

2019 Montana Perinatal Behavioral Health Initiative Conference Agenda

Date: April 2-3, 2019

Goals:

1. Increase the knowledge of perinatal mood and substance use disorders.
2. Explore proven strategies to improve maternal, infant, and family outcomes.
3. Build a community of providers across the state for mutual learning.

Tuesday, April 2, 2019

- | | |
|--------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:00-8:45 | Registration and breakfast |
| 8:45-9:00 | Welcome from the Montana Healthcare Foundation and Department of Health and Human Services: Aaron Wernham and Sheila Hogan |
| 9:00-9:15 | Overview of Perinatal Behavioral Health Initiative partnership with DPHHS: Tressie White and Jen Rieden |
| 9:15-9:30 | Overview of team-based model of care: Joan King, National Council for Behavioral Health |
| 9:30-10:45 | MOMS Collaborative (Maternal Opiate Medical Supports): A team-based healthcare delivery model that emphasizes care coordination and behavioral health services.
KEY NOTE TBD |
| 10:45-11:00 | Break |
| 11:00-12:15 | Integrating behavioral health in the prenatal care setting: Joan King |
| 12:15-1:15 | Networking lunch |
| 1:15-2:45 | Overview of SBIRT (screening, brief intervention and referral to treatment): Pam Pietruszewski, National Council for Behavioral Health |
| 2:45-3:00 | Break |
| 3:00-4:30 | Overview of SBIRT continued and grantee sharing of SBIRT to date |
| 4:30-4:45 | Wrap up and homework |

Wednesday, April 3, 2019

- 8:15-9:00 Networking breakfast
- 9:00-9:30 Discussion of homework (what was the most striking thing you heard yesterday or what question do you bring today?)
- 9:30-10:45 Care Coordination and Community Team: Joan King and Stephanie Mortan
- Key functions of care coordination
 - Screening for social determinants of health
 - CFSD partnership and shared responsibilities - what does this look like in Montana?
 - Community resources
- 10:45-11:00 Break
- 11:00-12:30 Current grantee panel: what we have learned in the past six months
- 12:30-1:30 Networking lunch
- 1:30-3:30 Office Hours: Child and Family Services Regional Administrators, Home Visiting programs, Healthy Mother's Healthy Babies, National Council for Behavioral Health
- 3:30-4:00 Wrap up and next steps: Aaron, Tressie, Joan